PEONIES

They've always been close to the lives of us all;
The first time I saw them I still can recall-Twas my father who showed me this glorious charm,
As he stood with a cluster of pink
in his arm;
He taught me their beauty, an ever since then I've watched for the Peonies to blossom again.

There was never a June but the old home has known
A touch of the beauty the peonies own, They've come back each year to bring joy to the place,
For our eyes to behold and our arms to embrace.
An life seems to lose the dead weight of its gloom In those wonderful weeks when the Peonies bloom.
